

William R. Mott, Ph.D.

Consultant to Schools and Non-Profit Organizations

Who is Bill?

Bill is a recognized leader in school and non-profit governance and fundraising.

What does he do?

Bill is a consultant, speaker, and author. He works with schools and non-profit organizations like yours to enrich the relationship between the leadership of the organization and the governing board. Through speaking engagements, retreats, small group sessions, workshops, and one-to-one coaching, he promotes and teaches effective communication. In addition, Bill consults with non-profit organizations in every aspect of fundraising including campaigns, annual fund programs, membership programs, and major gift and endowment programs.

Ready to have Bill help your organization?

Expertise – Bill's consulting, speaking, and writing draws on more than 25 years of educational and non-profit accomplishments. Bill has been successful in a variety of leadership experiences. He has served as the president of a junior college, head of two independent schools, director of a museum house, and director of development of a nationally recognized university. He holds a Ph.D. from Vanderbilt University's Peabody College, America's number one ranked school of education according to U.S. News and World Report.

Experience – In addition to his years as a non-profit leader, Bill has consulted with many school and non-profit organizations like yours. He has been privileged to work with numerous independent schools, colleges, museums, historic sites, libraries, and churches. You and your organization will gain from Bill's expertise and experience.

Value – Bill knows that non-profit organizations are vital to our nation and to our world. Their life-changing, transformational missions play a fundamental role in how we live and work. Their ability to thrive in our society is critical! He knows that winning the hearts and minds of governing boards and non-profit leaders results in shared vision and where common purpose becomes the priority.

“It has been a pleasure working with Bill on two campaigns. He has been my guide, counselor, encourager, and mentor.”

— Mark McFerran, Director of External Affairs
Brentwood Academy
